Pick up at your hotel and at around 08.30 am will start our sightseeing trip to explore the best highlights of Phu Quoc Island (from the North to South of Phu Quoc Island is around 45 km long), our trip will including of the South and North Parts :

Southern Parts and Highlights:

- We will visit local Sim Winery and sample some local wines, it known to ferment by natural ingredient.
- Stop to visit local Pearl Farm, there are several pearl farms on Phu Quoc raising different varieties of oysters. 2.2km down the road, Phu Quoc Pearl Farm raises Australian stock and is now managed by Ngoc Hien who uses Japanese technology. (Notes: there are three tests to see whether a pearl is real. The first is called friction in which two pearls are rubbed against each other to create a little powder. If the pearl is polished again after being applied with the powder, it's real. The second is called a tooth test where you are supposed to bite the pearl with your teeth. If it feels gritty or sandy, it's real. The last, called flame test is difficult to apply. Burn the pearl until it turns red and breaks into powder to ensure it is genuine. Tourists are also advised to turn to a professional in the field for help and buy only from trusted shops. )
- Continue to visit Phu Quoc Prison or Coconut Prison, which was believed to keep over 14,000 prisoners during Vietnam-Indochina war. Dung Vietnam wars, the prison was rebuilt but kept the same name. The new prison had separate areas for men, women and the elder. As time passed by, until 1966, a new part of the prison was built to imprison more Vietnamese soldiers. The new part of the prison had 12 main areas. Each area was divided into four different sub-areas "A", "B", "C" and "D". The protection security was very strict with tight supervision all the time
- Our next stop to one of the most important sauce ingredient in Vietnamese and Asian Cuisine: the making of Fish Sauce.

Visiting Phu Quoc fish sauce factories, you will have a chance to witness the scale of the fish sauce manufacturing facilities and the process for forming droplets of scrumptious fish sauce. The giant crates are lined up serving the demands of tourists' visiting. Phu Quoc fish sauce is popular thanks to its high in protein (36-40), the sweet taste and the delicious smell of Coc Sieu anchovies, specialty only appearing in Phu Quoc. Today, Phu Quoc is home to more than 100 operating factories to produce premium anchovy fish sauce bottles. They yearly launch hundreds and thousands of liters of fish sauce finished production with traditional ways more than hundred years of the pearl island. Discovering these fish sauce factories is thus definitely one of the most unforgettable things to do in Phu Quoc.

- Lunch will be served at one of the finest local restaurant at Bai Sao Beach, a most beautiful beach on Phu Quoc Island. Before will moving to Northern parts of the island, we will stop over to visit local Ham Ninh Fishing Village famous for the fresh seafood, shellfish and shallow water and observe the daily life of the fishermen.
